Father Michael J. McGivney OUR SCHOOL PATRON

Father Michael McGivney was the founder of the Knights of Columbus, a fraternal organization whose aims are to provide support for its members and their families. He was born in 1852 in Waterbury, Connecticut, one of 13 children, six of whom died very young. The family learned early about sorrow and the harsh grip of poverty. However, young Michael also learned about the powers of love and faith, and family fortitude.

Father Michael McGivney recognized the importance of education as a way for people to integrate themselves into their new cultural environment and to earn a living. He saw prayer as a force for daily sustenance. He believed in the transforming power of the good news of Jesus. He humbly accepted his own frailty, and full of gratitude he praised God's love for mankind.

Father Michael was plugged into the source of all life. He was a hero in an unassuming way responding to the call to holiness. He served the poor and marginalized in the midst of a pandemic, developing a serious case of pneumonia in January 1890 which led to his death on August 14 of that same year. On October 31st 2021, the Catholic Church beatified Fr. Michael McGivney, declaring him as Blessed and paving the way for his eventual entry into the Canon of Saints. The Universal Church will henceforth honour his life and legacy every August 13th on his Feast Day.

Our school is fortunate to have as our model and patron a young person who saw the needs of those who suffered in his community, and dedicated his life to serving them. We honour his memory by living out the gospel of Jesus. We share with our Pope Benedict XVI the hope that schools and organizations like the Knights founded by Father McGivney "will make every effort to draw young people to Jesus Christ and to help them understand that the true meaning and value of life is to be found in the generous gift of self to God and to others."

[illegible]

ANTHEM & PRAYER

Respect for our country and our religious practices are demonstrated by standing still during the playing of the national anthem and recitation of prayers before and after school and the Land Acknowledgement.

CODE OF CONDUCT

CODE OF CONDUCT AS PER YCDSB POLICY 218
(CODE OF CONDUCT), POLICY 202 \(SAFE SCHOOLS-STUDENT DISCIPLINE\), POLICY 223
(BULLYING PREVENTION AND INTERVENTION)

As a Catholic learning community, we are called to uphold the dignity of the person in all of our interactions. We believe in compassion and strive to create a learning and working environment that supports the physical and mental well-being of every member of our school community.

Students are to be treated with respect and dignity. In return, they must demonstrate respect for themselves, for others and for the responsibility of citizenship through acceptable behaviour. Respect and responsibility are demonstrated when a student:

- Comes to school prepared, on time, and ready to learn;
- Shows respect for themselves, for others, and for those in authority;
- Refrains from bringing anything to school that may compromise the safety of others;
- Follows the established rules and rules and takes responsibilities for their own actions.

The following acts are considered to be egregious and degrading in nature and will result in suspension from school:

- bullying - cyber, verbal, physical
- acts of physical violence or assault
- any act that is sexual in nature
- the use of racial slurs or any derogatory comments towards persons of a specific ethnicity or religious affiliation
- the use of homophobic and transphobic comments
- the use of cellphones to record and post video involving members of the school community

Additionally any act or behaviour that is considered to be contrary to the school and/or board of conduct that is not listed may result in suspension and if required, consultation with York Regional Police.

ACADEMIC HONESTY

All members of the school community will be held to a high standard of personal integrity and academic honesty. This includes understanding the importance of acknowledging the work of others accurately and honestly. Students will also understand the categories of 'academic dishonesty' which are serious academic offences and could result in students receiving a mark of zero.

Plagiarism: presenting someone else's words or ideas as one's own. Plagiarism includes:

- Submitting an assignment that is completed by another and claim it as one's own;
- Incorporating large segments of someone else's work and only use connecting sentences without reference to the source;
- Directly copying another person's re-write of an assignment, as in the case of a parent/guardian, tutor or ghostwriter;
- Cyber-plagiarism -Copying sections from the internet without referencing the source;
- Using artificial intelligence (A.I.) to write an assignment.

Collusion: helping another student to be academically dishonest, and could include giving one's work to another student for the purpose of misrepresenting ownership of that work.

Misconduct during evaluations: communicating with another student during a written evaluation; possessing unauthorised material (for example, an electronic device other than a permitted calculator, notes, a cell phone) during a written evaluation, regardless of whether any attempt is made to use that material.

Any form of plagiarism is a serious academic offence and is contrary to the vision of the learner in our school. Each student is expected to be an effective communicator who 'reads, understands and uses written materials effectively, presents information and ideas clearly and honestly and with sensitivity to others' (Ontario Catholic Graduate Expectations). A student is expected to be a collaborative contributor who 'respects the rights, responsibilities and contributions of self and others' as well as a responsible citizen who 'acts morally and legally and accepts accountability for one's own actions' (Ontario Catholic Graduate Expectations).

Note that academic dishonesty, not limited to the descriptors noted above, could result in the teacher either assigning a mark of ZERO. Progressive discipline will be considered in the consequence assigned. A detailed academic honesty policy and ways to avoid plagiarism is available on the school website.

ATTENDANCE

All students are expected to attend their regularly scheduled classes. *Note that it is a Ministry of Education (MOE) requirement that students complete 110 hours of instructional time in order to receive credit for a course. The YCDSB does not offer a hybrid model of instruction, and students are expected to attend all classes in person in order to earn credits.

Parent(s)/Guardian(s)/Caregiver(s) are expected to:

- Provide a current and accurate 'emergency contact' information to the school;
- Inform the school before 9:00 am through the 'Safe Arrival Parent Portal Website/ Safe Arrival App' or by calling the 'Parent Toll Free Safe Arrival Phone Number' when their child will be absent or late or in need of early leave;
- Provide the school with a reason for their child's absence, lateness or early leave through the automated attendance reporting system or a written note.

All students are expected to:

- Be present in their homeroom at the start of morning exercises;
- Sign in at the Attendance Office if arriving late or leaving early, with parent approval;
- Return from lunch period on time;
- Attend school and classes each day, unless administration has been notified of extenuating circumstances;
- Submit notes to their homeroom teacher when provided by their parent(s)/ guardian(s)/ caregiver(s).

According to MOE guidelines, a student who misses 15 consecutive days without the student or parent/guardian contacting the school about the nature of the absence will be summarily removed from the school's enrolment register. Persistent truancy will result in detentions and eventual suspension from school. Students of compulsory school age who do not attend school regularly will be reported to the school board attendance counsellor.

LATES

Students are expected to be on time for school and in class before the morning bell at 8:28am and for all classes during the day. Arriving any time after 8:28am will result in being late. Tardiness can affect student achievement, is disruptive to teaching, and is not acceptable. Any students arriving to school after 8:45 AM must report to the attendance office to sign in. Occasional late arrivals to class due to unusual circumstances will happen to everyone. When this happens during the school day in between periods, students are expected to report directly to the class and request entry from the subject teacher. Chronic latecomers shall be reported to the appropriate vice principal.

EARLY LEAVES

If a student must leave school early (ie. Medical appt) for any reason, parents should report this to the attendance office ahead of time through our Safe Arrival app before 9:00 AM the day of the sign out. (The only exception is an emergency and or sudden illness). The student can come pick up their sign-out slip in the morning before school starts at 8:15 AM if it has been reported prior, so they can leave at the necessary time in a more efficient and timely manner. If they did not pick up the slip, then they will need to report to the attendance office at the time of the early leave to obtain a sign-out slip. On returning to school, the student must return to the attendance office to admit them back into school. Students who will not be returning until the following day must hold onto their sign-out slip and show it to their subject teacher whose classes they missed the day they return. Once a student has been signed out, they must leave the school premises. Under no circumstances may a student leave school without following these procedures and without authorization. Students who do not sign out properly will be consequences.

LATE AND MISSED ASSIGNMENTS

Students are responsible for completing all assignments by a predetermined due date. If they do not submit an assignment by the established closure date, it will be considered late and marks will be deducted. Teachers will use a placeholder of zero for missed assignments.

If, in the teacher's professional judgment, a student has demonstrated achievement of the missed expectations through subsequent assignments or in another context, they will determine the student's level of achievement based on the weight of this evidence. Teachers will apply their professional judgment in addressing this issue with the students.

CONCERNS - Conflict Resolution

It is our desire to establish clear lines of communication that are understood and respected by all members of the school community: parents, students, teachers, administrators and support staff. Our hope is to encourage direct communication between parties and to bring about effective resolution of concerns.

In the event that a concern should arise between staff and students, it is recommended that the concern be addressed according to the following process: Parent/student are invited to talk to

1. the teacher directly
2. the appropriate Vice-Principal
3. the Principal
4. the appropriate Superintendent

This process is designed to bring serious concerns to the attention of school personnel immediately and to resolve concerns at the level at which they occur. Parents and students may choose to move to the next level if they feel the issues are not being addressed appropriately.

EMPLOYMENT

For students to achieve their full academic potential, adequate time must be dedicated to full-time studies. Those students employed during the week and/or weekends may be jeopardizing their chances for academic success. No student should work more than fifteen hours a week.

EXAMINATIONS

Formal examinations are held at the end of each semester - January and June respectively. During examinations, students need to be in school only for the duration of each exam. Each student must check the exam timetable carefully and report to the correct location for the start of each exam. Students will receive a copy of the exam timetable and complete instructions regarding exams prior to the examination period. Do not schedule trips/vacations to conflict with these examination dates.

Students who are absent from an examination because of illness must present to the office a parent's or guardian's note and a doctor's certificate explaining the absence within 24 hours. Legitimate absences will normally mean the student will write the missed exam as soon as can be arranged. Absence without appropriate justification will result in a grade of zero for the exam.

TEXTBOOKS TO BE HANDED IN AT EXAMINATION

Students are to bring their textbooks to the exam room and place them under their desk during their exam. The textbooks must be the one assigned to the student at the beginning of the semester - same number - same condition.

If the text is not returned, then students will pay the replacement cost of the textbook.

LIBRARY BOOKS

All Library Books must be returned and all fines paid before the end of the school year. If library books are missing or lost, students will pay the replacement cost of the book.

If the library book is not returned, students must pay the replacement cost of the text before receiving another text in any other course.

UNIFORMS DURING EXAMS

No bags, jackets, coats, purses, backpacks, etc. will be allowed into the exam room. Students are to put such items into their locker before the examinations start. Full uniform must be worn during the examinations. Students not in full uniform will not be admitted to exam rooms.

FEES

Each student pays a Student Activity Fee (SAF) of $50.00. This amount helps to subsidize activities such as the leadership program, the athletic program and a variety of other student-centered activities. The distribution of this fee is provided in the first published issue of the school newsletter.

There is no fee requirement for the basic needs and materials of any credit bearing course offered at the school. However, students may acquire enhanced or advanced learning in any course through the purchase of materials recommended by the teacher of that course. These fees may include such material as workbooks, musical instrument rental, etc.

Further information about such enhancements will be available from the teacher at the onset of the course.

FIELD TRIPS AND EXCURSIONS

The school Code of Conduct is in effect on all trips. Consent forms signed by a parent or guardian must be provided by each student who participates in a trip or excursion.

No private arrangements can be made concerning transportation on a field trip or excursion. All students must depart from and return to the school on the transportation provided by the school at the prescribed times. Students are responsible for all missed assignments and homework during the field trip or excursion period. The dress code of full uniform will remain in effect on all field trips and excursions except where arrangements have been made with the Administration.

FIRE DRILLS & EMERGENCY RESPONSE

Fire drill and emergency response (eg “Lockdown”, “Hold & Secure”) procedures are posted in each classroom.

FIRE EVACUATION FOR STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Fire evacuation procedures for students with special needs are processed with special education department personnel.

LOCKERS

All students are assigned a locker/lock for the full year where they can store personal items. Their lock may be used from year to year. We strongly recommend that valuable items not be brought to school. Lost or missing items not stored in lockers are not the responsibility of the school. At the end of the school year, students are required to remove their lock and clean out all items from the locker. Any items left behind will be donated. Students are not permitted to share their combinations to any other student, or share their locker.

GUIDANCE

The Guidance Department assists students in making informed educational and career decisions. Counsellors will also assist students in resolving personal and social concerns.

CO-CURRICULAR POLICY

Guidelines for Student Participation:

1. Being a member of a school team or a co-curricular activity is a privilege - not a right.
2. Every student who wishes to participate in an activity must observe regulations as stated in the school policy.

HONOUR ROLL AND AWARDS

A student is eligible for the Father McGivney Honour Roll if an average of 79.5% or higher is achieved on the basis of the full school year, for all YCDSB courses.

HONOUR SOCIETY

In June 2011, the FMM Honour Society was inaugurated. Any student who achieved the distinction of being on the Honour Roll for each of their four high school years was inducted into this society and received a memorial plaque, medal or certificate to mark that achievement.

STUDENT SERVICES

PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

The Psychology Department for secondary schools includes Psychologists and Behaviour Resource staff. The Department provides a referral-based service to the school community. Psychologists and Behaviour Resource staff collaborate and consult with school staff, families, central level personnel, as well as community agencies in meeting individual student needs. Psychologists address the complex learning, personality, emotional, and interpersonal needs of students. Behaviour Resource staff respond to social, behavioural and adjustment issues which interfere with academic success.

PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES

- Consultation and in-service education to the school community with respect to the psychological needs of students.
- Assessment of cognitive, personality and psychosocial development.
- Facilitation and follow-up of students and families with community agencies.
- Short-term supportive counselling.
- Crisis-intervention.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES

- Consultation and in-service education to the school community with respect to adolescent development, behaviour management, intervention strategies, communication systems, conflict resolution and codes of behaviour/discipline.
- Recommendations and strategies for program modifications to address student needs.
- Liaison with community agencies to ensure continuity and clarity of communication and consistent application of strategies.
- Participation in Student Services committees, case conferences, parent meetings, and as a resource of SE/IPRC meetings as required.
- Consultation/Direct Service in support of individual students, groups, and classrooms.
- Crisis-intervention.

Referrals can be made through Administration, Guidance and Special Education. Students can self-refer by contacting the School Administration.

STUDENT SUCCESS TEAMS

As part of the Ministry of Education Student Success Initiative, the York Catholic District School Board has introduced student success support teams in every high school. These teams meet to support students who are at risk of not graduating from high school. At Father McGivney Catholic Academy, our teams consist of the grade level vice-principal, guidance counsellor and a special education teacher who meet throughout the semester. The purpose of these meetings is to identify, implement and re-evaluate school-based supports and interventions to ensure student success; to refer to board personnel through the Student Services Committee if additional resources are required; and to co-ordinate services in order to prevent duplication of resources.

Electronic Resources @ Father Michael McGivney

When accessing information on the Internet, it is necessary to determine the quality and reliability of the resources found. Being able to critically evaluate a web site is an important skill.

A very useful table explaining criteria for website evaluation was created by Jim Kapoun, reference and instruction librarian at Southwest State University, and published in College and Research Libraries News. (July/August, 1998): 522-523.

Five Criteria for Evaluating Web Pages
Evaluation of Web Documents	How to Interpret the Basics
1. Accuracy of Web Documents <ul style="list-style-type: none">Who wrote the page and can you contact him or her?What is the purpose of the document and why was it produced?Is this person qualified to write this document?	Accuracy Make sure the author provides e-mail or a contact address/phone number. Know the difference between author and Webmaster.
2. Authority of Web Documents <ul style="list-style-type: none">Who published the document and is it separate from the "Webmaster"?Check the domain of the document; what institution publishes this document?	Authority <ul style="list-style-type: none">What credentials are listed for the author(s)?Where is the document published? Check the URL domain.
3. Objectivity of Web Documents <ul style="list-style-type: none">What goals/objectives does this page meet?How detailed is the information?What opinions, if any, are expressed by the author?	Objectivity Determine if page is a mask for advertising; if so, information might be biased. View any Web page as you would an "infomercial" on television. Ask yourself why was this written and for whom?
4. Currency of Web Documents <ul style="list-style-type: none">When was it produced?When was it updated?How up-to-date are the links (if any)? 5. Coverage of the Web Documents <ul style="list-style-type: none">Are the links (if any) evaluated and do they complement the document's theme?Is it all images, or a balance of text and images?Is the information presented cited correctly?	Currency <ul style="list-style-type: none">How many dead links are on the page?Are the links current or updated regularly?Is the information on the page outdated?
	Coverage <ul style="list-style-type: none">If the web page requires special software to view the information, how much are you missing if you don't have the software?Is it free, or is there a fee, to obtain the information?Is there an option for text only, or frames, or a suggested browser for better viewing?

Essay Example - MLA Style

The diagram illustrates the formatting of an MLA-style essay page. It includes a header box at the top right containing the text "Header: last name, page". The page content is enclosed in a large rectangular frame. At the top left, a horizontal double-headed arrow labeled "1\"" indicates the margin. To its right, a vertical double-headed arrow labeled "1\"" indicates the line spacing. A box labeled "Double-space" has arrows pointing to the line spacing and the text area. The text area begins with a header "Josephson 1" on the right. The first paragraph is indented, with a box labeled "Indent .5\"" pointing to the start of the first line. The text of the first paragraph is: "Laura N. Josephson

Ellington's Adventures in Music and Geography

In studying the influence of Latin American, African, and Asian music on modern American composers, music historians tend to discuss such figures as Aaron Copland, George Gershwin, Henry Cowell, Alan Hovhaness, and John Cage (Brindle; Griffiths 104-39; Hitchcock 173-98). They usually overlook Duke Ellington, whom Gunther Schuller rightly calls "one of America's great composers" (318), probably because they are familiar only with Ellington's popular pieces, like "Sophisticated Lady," "Mood Indigo," and "Solitude." Still little known are the many ambitious orchestral suites Ellington composed, several of which, such as Black, Brown, and Beige (originally entitled The African Suite), The Liberian Suite, The Far East Suite, The Latin American Suite, and Afro-Eurasian Eclipse, explore his impressions of the people, places, and music of other countries.

The second paragraph begins with "Not all music critics, however, have ignored Ellington's excursions into longer musical forms. In the 1950's, for example, while Ellington was still alive, Raymond Horricks compared him with Ravel, Delius, and Debussy:"

The third paragraph begins with "The continually inquiring mind of Ellington [...] has sought to extend steadily the imaginative boundaries of the musical form on which it subsists. [...] Ellington since the mid-1930s has been engaged upon extending both the imagery and the formal construction of written jazz. (122-23). Ellington's earliest attempts to move beyond the three-minute limit

A box labeled "Block Indent" points to the start of the third paragraph. A horizontal double-headed arrow is placed below the third paragraph.

Embedded Citations: Citing Correctly MLA Style

Direct quotations, or indirect references to a text, are often useful in proving your point; use them selectively. To correctly include a direct quotation or paraphrased sentence, use the following steps:

- Place the embedded citation (parenthetical reference) as near as possible to the material it documents.
- At the end of the quotation or idea, write the author's name (if no author, use title of the work) and the page number of the source in parentheses.
examples: (Booth 226) ("Global Warming" 42) (Steroids 57)
- If two authors have the same last name then you must use the first initial.
example: (L. Booth 226) (Q. Booth 13)
- If the work has more than three authors, give the first author's last name followed by et al.
example: (Chong et al. 10)
- If you are quoting from two or more works written by the same author, put the author's last name, and add the title of the work and the relevant page reference.
example: (Bell, Crabbe 24) (Bell, Forbidden City 128)
- For online sources, use the author's last name (if no author, use title of work)
examples: (Hynes) ("Dieppe Raid")
- When citing directly from classic plays and poems omit page numbers and cite by act, scene, book, or part and by line. Use periods to separate the various numbers.
examples: (IV.iii.44-47) OR (Hamlet 4.3.44-47)
- When a quotation is four lines or less, place it in quotation marks and include it in the body of the essay.
- If the quotation is longer than four lines, separate it from the rest of the essay, by beginning a new line, indenting 10 spaces from the left margin and typing it double-spaced. Do not use quotation marks. A colon (:) usually introduces a long quotation.

Examples of Embedded Citations (Parenthetical References)

The Renaissance was "a time of great advancement in the Sciences and Arts" (Cooper 16). Many painting and architectural techniques can be traced back to this time ...

OR

Leonardo da Vinci is well known as an artist, however, many people may not realize that he also was responsible for many important inventions (Galbraith 18).

MLA Guidelines for Works Cited

All papers written for submission to teachers will have a Works Cited page, which lists all resources quoted, paraphrased, and referred to for major ideas. Credit all sources and record necessary information for possible inclusion in a list of works cited.

- use a separate piece of paper, placed at the end of your essay/report
- the title of the page should be “Works Cited” and it should be centred, not underlined, same font, same size
- start the first line at the margin and indent subsequent lines of the entry 1 tab or 5 spaces (This is called a hanging indent.)
- use an acceptable font (e.g. 12 pt., Arial or Times New Roman)
- leave one or two spaces after each punctuation mark
- double-space throughout
- place in alphabetical order by first word in entry (exclude “the” “a” “an”)
- do not number your citations
- do not divide into categories (print, electronic, etc... are all in one alphabetical list)
- use the most recent date of publication
- all months except May, June and July are abbreviated
- italicize all titles of books and names of web sites
- include the medium in all entries.

Note: for APA Guidelines, refer to your school library website.

A Message From...

On behalf of the entire York Catholic District School Board, it is our pleasure to extend a warm welcome to the 2024 - 2025 school year!

The start of a new school year brings with it an air of excitement. It is a time for opportunity, discovery and hope. We urge you to take advantage of every opportunity that your school offers. Learn new skills, make new friends, explore your passions by joining teams and clubs, don't be afraid to ask questions in class and become more like the person God meant you to be.

"Blessed is the one who finds wisdom, and the one who gets understanding, for the gain from her is better than gain from silver and her profit better than gold." Proverbs 3:13-14

You will be provided many opportunities to give back to your community and further your intellectual, spiritual, physical and social development. Nurturing all aspects of your being--your body, mind and soul will help you to make a mark and determine the kind of person you would like to be.

Families & Schools: Together we Make a Difference

About the York Catholic District School Board

Located in one of the fastest growing areas in North America, the York Catholic District School Board provides quality education in each of York Region's nine municipalities: Aurora, East Gwillimbury, Georgina, Markham, Newmarket, Richmond Hill, Township of King, Vaughan and Whitchurch-Stouffville.

Currently, we have 86 elementary schools and 16 secondary schools and more than 5,000 dedicated staff serving more than 53,000 students.

York Catholic schools are committed to providing faith-filled learning environments where collaboration, innovation and improvement are built into daily activities.

As a Catholic Learning Community, we continually reflect on our best practices, assess our effectiveness and make decisions about where we need to improve.

Engaged in a common purpose, we work together to support student learning and reach agreed upon goals that we could not achieve independently.

Parent Involvement: Working Together for Enhanced Student Achievement

At York Catholic, we believe in Catholic Learning Communities where adults and children are all engaged in a life-long learning process. We know that we learn much from each other, and that partners working together will create a more vibrant community for everyone. We believe that student achievement is a shared responsibility among the home, school, parish and broader community. Together, we all contribute to the success of our students and the improvement of our schools.

As the first educators of their children, parents play a prominent role in the education process. Research indicates that parent involvement and engagement have a significant impact on student academic achievement across all cultures, backgrounds and socioeconomic status. When parents take an active role, children do better, attend more regularly, and have more positive attitudes towards school.

In studies that examined specific parent behaviours, it was found that having high expectations of children is the most significant contributor to their academic achievement. Parents reading to their children and talking with them about school are the next most important parental involvement activities. What this means is that improving children's chances for success may be as simple as creating an education-oriented atmosphere at home.

We encourage you to become an active partner in your child's education. Reading with your children; engaging them in conversations about their learning; providing a quiet and supportive environment for homework activities; worshipping together and attending school events are a few of the many great ways you support the learning partnership of the home, school and parish. We wish you and your children a great year ahead!

What is the York Catholic Parent Involvement Committee?

The York Catholic Parent Involvement Committee (YCPIC) was formed as an advisory body whose primary purpose is to promote effective parent involvement/engagement, enabling parents to play a stronger role in supporting student achievement.

According to the Ministry of Education, Parent Involvement Committees advise directors of education in Ontario on ways to increase parental engagement.

YCPIC is a committee of parents who meet regularly throughout the school year. There is an opportunity for parents to serve on YCPIC. Please visit www.ycdsb.ca/parents/ycpic for additional information.

Mental Health and Well-Being

The York Catholic District School Board is strongly committed to promoting mental well-being in all our students. We recognize the importance of prevention and early intervention, decreasing stigma, increasing awareness of the signs of child and youth mental health problems; and understanding that help is available.

YCDSB has developed a Comprehensive Mental Health and Addiction Strategy. This strategy focuses on:

- Building resiliency and social-emotional learning skills
- Reducing stigma of mental health and addiction
- Early identification and intervention
- Providing access to high quality services for our students

Our vision is to create teaching and learning environments that promote positive mental health for everyone. For more information and resources please visit our website at www.ycdsb.ca/mental-health/.

Active School Travel

We encourage students and families to use active travel to and from school, including walking or cycling or riding the school bus if you live outside the walking zone. You can also consider parking a block away from the school and walking the rest of the way.

Choosing active travel:

- Keeps students active and healthy
- Improves air quality and the environment with fewer cars on the road
- Creates safer routes and communities with less traffic
- Helps prepare students for learning

Choosing active travel two or three days a week can still provide benefits. Look out for opportunities to participate and celebrate active school travel during the school year!

The Liturgical Calendar

In September, we start the school year in Ordinary Time of the Liturgical Year in Cycle B.

A New Liturgical Year, Cycle C, begins on the First Sunday of Advent, December 1, 2024. During Advent, we prepare for Christmas.

Christmas Day is celebrated on December 25.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 5, 2025 and ends at the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday, April 17, 2024. During Lent we prepare for Easter - Sunday, April 20, 2025

Holy Week begins with Passion (Palm) Sunday. The Triduum includes Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. Easter Sunday follows.

Easter Season lasts for 50 days, finishing on Pentecost - Sunday, June 8, 2025.

Then we return to Ordinary Time for the remainder of the school year.

Colours of the Liturgical Season

- Ordinary Time: Green
- Advent and Lent: Violet or Purple
- Triduum: Red
- Easter and Christmas: White

Priests will usually wear the colours of the season when they are celebrating mass. Altar cloths may reflect these colours as well.

Sometimes, priests will wear red on important celebrations such as Feast Days and Pentecost when we remember Saints.

The Seven Sacraments

Sacraments are special celebrations in our Church life. At these times we know that we are graced by God.

Baptism

"I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Reconciliation

"I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Eucharist

The Eucharistic Prayer within the liturgy, "This is my body...this is my blood..."

Confirmation

"Be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit."

Marriage

The couple exchange vows witnessed by a Priest or Deacon.

Holy Orders

The Prayer of Consecration that follows the laying celebrations, called Feast Days, when we remember Saints, as well as on Pentecost.

Sacrament of the Sick

"Through this holy anointing may God's love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit." Amen

The Sacraments help us nourish, strengthen and express our faith.

Beatitudes

The Beatitudes are part of Jesus' great Sermon on the Mount found in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. These eight statements challenge us to build the "Kingdom of God" here on earth in the way that we relate to one another.

- Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.
- Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.
- Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.
- Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.
- Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.
- Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.
- Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons (and daughters) of God.
- Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

The word 'Beatitudes' comes from Latin 'beatus', meaning "blessed" or "happy."

Traditional Catholic Prayers

Sign of the Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Le Signe De La Croix

Au nom du Père et du Fils et du Saint-Esprit. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen

Notre Père

Notre Père, qui es au ciel, que ton nom soit sanctifié, que ton règne vienne, que ta volonté soit faite sur la terre comme au ciel. Donne-nous aujourd'hui notre pain de ce jour. Pardonne-nous nos offenses comme nous pardonnons aussi à ceux qui nous ont offensés. Et ne nous soumets pas à la tentation, mais délivre-nous du mal. Amen

Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good, I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Saviour Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

Morning Offering

O Jesus, through the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I offer you all my prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day, for all the intentions of your Sacred Heart, in union with the holy sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, in reparation for my sins, for the intentions of all our associates, and for the general intention recommended this month.

Hail Mary

Hail, Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with you; blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Je Vous Salue, Marie

Je vous salue, Marie, pleine de grâce, le Seigneur est avec vous. Vous êtes bénie entre toutes les femmes et Jésus, le fruit de vos entrailles, est béni. Sainte Marie, mère de Dieu, priez pour nous, pauvres pécheurs, maintenant et à l'heure de notre mort. Amen

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen

Gloire Soit Au Père

Gloire soit au Père, et au Fils, et au Saint-Esprit, comme il était au commencement, maintenant et toujours, pour les siècles des siècles. Amen

Grace Before Meals

Bless us, O Lord, and these your gifts, which we are about to receive from your bounty, through Christ our Lord. Amen

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen

*In prayer we talk to God and listen to God.
Prayer brings us closer to our loving God.*

The Rosary

The Rosary is a prayer in honour of the Blessed Virgin Mary. It repeats the Hail Mary in "decades" of ten prayers, each preceded by the Our Father and concluded by the Glory Be.

The prayers are accompanied by meditation on the "Mysteries" or the significant events or moments in the life of Jesus and Mary.

The Mysteries

The Church traditionally prays four specific Mysteries on certain days of the week, such as:

Monday and Saturday - Joyful Mysteries

Tuesday and Friday - Sorrowful Mysteries

Wednesday and Sunday - Glorious Mysteries

Thursday - Luminous Mysteries

How to Pray the Rosary

1 - Hold the Crucifix, make the Sign of the Cross and say the Apostles' Creed.

2 - Hold the first bead, Say the Our Father.

3 - Say 3 Hail Mary's.

4 - Say the Glory be to the Father.

5 - Announce the Mystery; then say the Our Father.

6 - Say 10 Hail Mary's while meditating on the Mystery.

7 - Say the Glory be to the Father.

8 - Repeat the last three steps, meditating on each of the other Mysteries.

Tips to Pray the Rosary Every Day

- Pray for moments of sadness or spiritual drought.
- Pray while walking or waiting for your bus.
- Pray while doing chores or working out.
- Pray when you are upset.
- Carry a Rosary in your pocket.
- Fall asleep praying the Rosary (better than counting sheep!)
- If you can't pray the whole Rosary at once, break it into parts.

"The Rosary is the prayer that always accompanies my life."

-Pope Francis

2. A child's brain is still developing and needs a unique approach to care.
3. You can have a concussion without losing consciousness.
4. Concussion symptoms are more than just physical. They can be mental, emotional or behavioural.
5. Most concussions resolve quickly, however 30% of people have symptoms that last longer than 8 weeks.
6. It's essential for optimal recovery to rest your mind and body.

Immunization

Each child attending school is required to be fully immunized. From time to time, parents/guardians will receive an immunization questionnaire from the public health department asking for updated information on their child's immunization record.

1 - Immunization is your child's best defense against serious childhood diseases. The Immunization of School Pupils Act (ISPA) outlines immunization requirements for children attending school in Ontario, including to be up-to-date with Diphtheria, Tetanus, Polio, Pertussis (whooping cough), Measles, Mumps, and Rubella, Meningococcal disease, and Varicella (chickenpox – for students born after January 1, 2010) immunizations. Students who are not up-to-date may be suspended from school.

2. Upon school registration, York Region Public Health may contact you requesting complete immunization history. It is the parent or guardian's responsibility, not the health providers, to maintain a record of a child's immunization and inform Public Health of these immunizations. The name of the vaccine and the date it was given should be included in the yellow immunization record. After your initial contact with Public Health, every time your child gets an immunization, parents can update their child's immunization record online at York Region Public Health or by calling 1-877-464-9675 extension 73456. Please visit www.york.ca/immunization for more information.

3 - If you cannot immunize your child due to medical reasons, a medical exemption form must be sent to York Region Public Health. As of September 1, 2017, Ontario parents and guardians that choose not to immunize their child for non-medical reasons are required to attend an immunization education session and complete the statement of conscience or religious belief form. Immunization education sessions for York Region residents are offered by York Region Public Health. Exemption forms are available on the York Region website under Immunizations - Immunization Requirements for School. For more information on immunization exemptions, contact York Region Public Health at 1-877-464-9675 ext. 73452.

4 - All vaccines on the Publicly Funded Immunization Schedule in Ontario are available at no cost through your family physician or by attending one of York Region Public Health vaccination clinics. Vaccines against HPV, Hepatitis B and Meningococcal disease are offered free of charge for certain age groups at your child's school. Please call Health Connection at 1-800-361-5653 for further information.

Mental Health

What is Mental Health?

Everyone has mental health. It might be helpful to think about mental health as a range or continuum. On one end is the optimal, on-top-of-the-world mental health. On the other is poor mental health. Not everyone has a mental illness. Mental illness, like mental health, can fluctuate. On one end of the continuum is no diagnosable mental illness (minimal or no symptoms). On the other end is severe mental illness. When the mental health and mental illness continuums are put together, they create a “dual continuum”.

Tips for Staying Well

Getting enough sleep, eating well, and minimizing screen time are good practices for our mental health.

Below are some additional tips to help promote good mental health practices:

- Spend time doing something you enjoy. This activity can be on your own or with a group of people. It's a moment for you to engage with healthy hobbies that make you happy.
- Take breaks. Take time out for yourself. Being busy can be good but being stressed all the time is not. Give yourself permission to rest and relax. Doing “nothing” is actually doing something. It's helping you build your strength for the next challenge.
- Help others. When you take time to be kind to others, or get involved in something bigger than yourself, it can give your own mental health a boost. Small things that don't take a lot of your own energy can sometimes make a huge difference to someone else. Say “hi” to someone new in the halls, invite someone to sit with you at lunch, hold the door open for someone, and see if it gives you a lift too.
- Notice the good things. It's easy to get caught up in the negatives that happen in life. Instead, look for the positives each day, even in situations that might seem bad. Be grateful for the small things.
- Get sleep. We know school starts early and you may like staying up late, so you might not get enough sleep all the time. But aim to get 8 or more hours of sleep most nights. Here are some tips on how to improve your sleep.
- Try to increase your water intake. Carry a water bottle with you so you can stay hydrated through the day. Consider decreasing or discontinuing your caffeine intake – caffeine has been shown to create a stress reaction in your body and might cause you to feel nervous, irritable or restless.
- Fuel yourself well. As a student, you are under a lot of stress at times, be mindful of the types of foods you eat. Sometimes it helps to have a healthy snack nearby so you can refuel easily and avoid getting “hangry”.
- Try to limit screen time. Research has linked social media use with mental health issues – you've probably heard this before. Using social media can cause us to compare ourselves... we do this without noticing, so it can be hard to stop. Many smartphones let you set timers on apps to help you limit how much you use them. Here's some more info about how social media impacts our wellness.
- Prioritize your healthy relationships. Find people in your life who help you to feel good. Notice how you feel after spending time with someone. Sometimes it's helpful to create boundaries for ourselves and limit contact with people who bring us down or encourage unhealthy behaviour.
- Move! Physical activity is good for our mental health. It can be as simple as taking a walk. Even better, join an activity at school – it's a great way to meet people who you can be active with.
- Try some mindfulness activities. Your teachers may have taught you some deep breathing exercises, or maybe you've joined a yoga class. What about meditation? Here's some information on mindfulness for teens.
- Get curious. Learn more about your mental and physical health. It's a fascinating area of study (yes, we're biased...). Recognize this is your life, and you can learn to improve your experience.

Moments when you are not feeling your best are normal. Our feelings and emotions change all the time, it's expected. At times these changes can affect what we think about ourselves or how we act towards other people. However, it is important to identify when you are having more than just a bad day.

Dual Continuum

Always remember:
“You are precious, valued and essential in making this world a better place.”

Mental Health

Questions to Reflect On:

- Is how I'm thinking, feeling, or acting different for me? A change from how I used to be?
- Are my thoughts, emotions or actions affecting my everyday life negatively?
- Have I been feeling this way for some time, like more than a couple of weeks?
- Am I dealing with my problems in unhealthy ways?
- Am I carrying too much by myself?

If you answer yes to some of these questions, it's probably time to connect with a supportive and caring person who can help. Reaching out can prevent problems from getting worse. There are in school mental health supports available. The YCDSB has Mental Health workers who provide group and individual short term psychotherapy to students grades 4-12 addressing issues like anxiety and depression. The Mental health and Addiction nurses provide short term support and psychoeducation to students who have visited a hospital and present with various mental health concerns. COMPASS staff provide support to families with more complex needs. Your teacher or principal can help get you connected to someone.

How You Can Help Friends

The best thing we can do for our friends is to be there for them. Don't judge, don't try to fix, just listen, and connect them to adults who can give them the appropriate mental health help they need. Also, remember to reach out for support if you need to, your health is important.

Here are simple, everyday things you and your friends can do to care for each other:

- Check in on each other and take an interest in what's going on in each other's lives.
- Be kind. You never know what someone else is carrying.
- Don't put others down. Avoid spreading rumors. Question nasty behavior.
- Include people. Notice others and pull them in.
- Help each other make safe choices. Don't let peer pressure become a "thing". You and your friends and classmates can rise above it.

All students and their parents/guardians (for students under the age of 18) can access their OSR and receive a copy of the OSR by written request to the Principal.

The lunch period in secondary schools is typically 40 minutes in length.

Occasionally, due to inclement weather or for other emergency situations, it may be necessary to cancel buses. In arriving at this decision, the safety of students will be of prime importance. If road and weather conditions do not ensure safe driving, the decision to cancel will be made by Student Transportation Services in consultation with the Board. Information will be conveyed to parents/guardians starting at 6 a.m. Please refer to:

On days where school buses are cancelled, any school excursions planned for that day are also cancelled.

Special Education Programs and Services

The York Catholic District School Board seeks to help all students reach their full potential.

The Board endorses the integration of learners with a focus on providing the most enabling learning environment recognizing the need for a continuum of responses. Our schools recognize the differences in students and adapt programs to meet their needs. Some are exceptional and may require special programs and services. For more information, visit our webpage: www.ycdsb.ca/programs-services/student-services/programs/. →

Student Behaviour

A safe, positive environment is a prerequisite to learning. Respect for self and others, contributing to the common good, accepting accountability for one's own actions, seeking and granting forgiveness, acting morally and legally as a person formed in the Catholic traditions and the promotion of self-discipline are cornerstones. The Board supports a preventative, proactive approach to managing the behaviour of its students. This approach includes the provision of alternative discipline strategies, progressive discipline and opportunities for alternative education programs.

Student Injury

In the event a child sustains an injury while at school, the parent/guardian or emergency contact person will be notified as soon as possible. It is required that each family provide the school with an up-to-date Emergency Procedures Form (S-2) at the beginning of the school year. It is the responsibility of the parent/guardian to update the information on the form as required by contacting their school's front office.
